

Las Vegas, Nevada to Mexico Border

After charging our camera batteries, sobering up from the previous nights festivities and counting our losses, we will head east across Hoover Dam and take in the sights of the Grand Canyon and maybe even a donkey ride to the bottom. Lunch will defiantly have to be in a diner on Rout 66.

But the sights do not stop there as we will head NW through Glen Canyon, Lake Powell, and around Lake Mead.

Monument Valley will see us off road again as we wind around the towers and south to Flagstaff.

I think by now our bikes will be in need of a little love, so a stop over in Tucson at Iron Horse Motorcycles will give them the attention they need.

Maybe we can find a day spa and get the attention we need!!

With the US section all most over, it would not be complete without a gunfight at the O K Corral in Tombstone.

We will be crossing the Mexican border at Douglas.
